

A LETTER OF THANKS

Half way through this year, it is now a good time to say thank you. First, we say thank you to our God for allowing us to help our Kuwaa brothers and sisters find a way to Him, and that they have a good Pastor, Rev. Paye, who is leading them spiritually. Second, we thank the Kuwaa people who helped with the projects – dig new or repair old nonfunctional wells, build and repair the road system, repair class rooms, and build a fully functional clinic. Third, we thank God for helping our volunteers and the Kuwaa women to work together in training mothers on better child care and prenatal care. Fourth, for helping volunteers teach Vacation Bible Schools and for providing school teachers on location training and training on how to teach Bible classes. Fifth, for providing funds for training Evangelists and others. It has been a wonderfully blessed 10 years. Sixth, for providing funds for training Evangelists and others. It has been a wonderfully blessed 10 years.

I want to thank God also for the people who have taken the message about Kuwaa Mission to heart. I also want to thank our God for touching peoples' hearts so that they dedicated some time to serve over there, especially Stan Olsen and Cindy Ellis Bye.

Now is the time that decisions have to be made. New Board Members are needed. Volunteers willing to go to Liberia to help supervise work projects are needed. Offerings are needed to carry out the projects.

The Board of Directors are praying and asking for God's direction in work projects. They have decided to focus on engaging new people, groups of people, and congregations to get them involved. Can you help the Mission by volunteering your service? The Kuwaa people still need our help. It takes people power and funds to do it.

May God bless our willingness to help and support the Work of the Mission. May he also bless you, my Christian brothers and sisters.
